

2024 Annual Report

Mission: Empower the people of Greater Cleveland with reliable bicycle transport, education, and mechanical skills training to increase mobility, improve health and protect the environment.

75 people learned how to tune up their bike

23 people learned how to fix a flat

9 people learned how to build a bike wheel

134 volunteers contributed 4,894 hours

We are a

We fixed bikes for the community at 9 fix-a-thons

We taught 94 people how to ride a bike

The Ohio City Bicycle Co-op (OCBC) is a volunteer-driven, non-profit bicycle education center that offers riding and repair classes, community programs, a well-equipped community shop where individuals can repair their own bikes, and a bicycle thrift store for refurbished bikes and used bike parts and gear.

355 bicycle donations processed

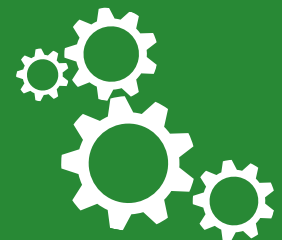

2,158 parts reused

257 bicycles refurbished

7,782 lbs of scrap metal recycled

Pay What You Can

Everyone should have access to bicycles for transportation, health, and joy. Our Pay What You Can program helps people with financial challenges obtain quality refurbished bicycles for adults and children. We also provide essential accessories such as helmets, locks, and lights, as well as perform bike repairs.

2024: We provided $23,523.41 in goods and services to 84 customers
2023: We provided $18,275.37 in goods and services to 55 customers

WATCH FOR

In 2024, customers enrolled in Pay What You Can received . . .

67 locks	105 repairs
29 helmets	17 adult bikes
52 headlights	9 kids bikes
51 tail lights

Thank You to our Local Partners!

and our grantors and supporters

- The Freeman Foundation
- The Funny Times Peace Fund
- The Jochum-Moll Foundation
- The Nathan Wisneski Fund
- The Make Them Know Your Name Foundation
- Swagelok

among others!